Breathtaking view of
Upper Stillwater Dam
Spillover

The Stillwater dam doesn't spill every year. Even without the water spilling over, you won't be disappointed in the view!

Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo History

Our rodeo traces its roots back to 1924 when the rodeo was known as the Golden West Days. Throughout the years, the name changed a few times. Our rodeo was sanctioned as a professional rodeo for the first time in 1950 and has been a premier rodeo on the professional circuit every year since then.

About John Wesley Powell

John Wesley Powell remains one of the most legendary characters to pass through what is now Dinosaur National Monument. On May 24, 1869 he began a journey for the ages as he led a company of men down the Green and Colorado rivers from Green River, Wyoming to St. Thomas, Nevada.
